FEDERAL TAX WITHHOLDING--Although the return of excess contributions is not subject to Federal income tax, any interest paid on your contributions is taxable in the year that it is paid. If you elect not to have Federal tax withheld, or if you do not have enough Federal tax withheld, you may be responsible for payment of estimated tax. In addition, you may incur penalties under the estimated tax rules if your withholdings and estimated tax payments are not sufficient.

PRIVACY ACT STATEMENT--Public Law 99-335, Federal Employees Retirement System Act, authorizes solicitation of this information. The data you furnish will be used to determine your eligibility to receive a return of excess retirement deductions.

This information may be shared with national, state, local, or other charitable or social security administrative agencies to determine and issue benefits under their programs, or with law enforcement agencies when they are investigating a violation or potential violation of the civil or criminal law.

Executive Order 9397 (November 22, 1943) authorizes use of the Social Security Number to distinguish you and people with similar names. Furnishing your Social Security Number, as well as other data, is voluntary, but if you do not do this, OPM may be unable to determine your eligibility to receive a return of excess retirement deductions.

WHERE TO FILE YOUR APPLICATION

1. If you are employed or have been separated 30 days or less, forward this application to the office in which you were last employed.
2. If you have been separated more than 30 days and want a refund of your total deductions, use form SF 3106; otherwise, forward this application to the Office of Personnel Management, Federal Employees Retirement System, P.O. Box 45, Employee Service and Records Center, Boyers, PA 16017.

See back of this form for important information concerning your application for return of excess retirement deductions.

Instructions to Employee

Do not complete this application if you had more than 5 years of civilian service as of the effective date of your FERS coverage. (Service after 1983 covered by both CSRS and Social Security deductions does not count toward the 5 year limit. Do not count refunded service and service not covered by CSRS deductions.) The notice of personnel action concerning your transfer to FERS will generally indicate if you are eligible for a refund. If your personnel office determines that you are not eligible for a return of excess deductions because you had 5 years of creditable civilian service, your application will be returned to you and your service will be credited under the Civil Service Retirement System. You may request, in writing, for your personnel office to reevaluate your application if you believe you have less than 5 years of creditable civilian service. If your agency again determines that you are not eligible for a return of excess deductions, OPM will reconsider your application.

If you have less than 5 years of creditable civilian service (excluding service after 1983 that was simultaneously subject to both CSRS and Social Security deductions) on the effective date of your FERS coverage, you may request a return of any excess military deposit you may have made as well as any excess CSRS deductions. Your service will still be credited under FERS. You may elect a return while you are an employee. Use this form to elect such a return. By law, interest is not paid on excess military deposits. In transfer cases, interest is paid on excess civilian deductions at a rate of 3% through 1984 and an annually variable rate thereafter.

The variable rates are listed below:

1985	13%
1986	11.125%
1987	9%
1988	8.375%
1989	9.125%
1990	8.75%
1991	8.625%
